

Bass note reading chart

open string

G String Open 1st fret

0

fingering

A 2nd fret

2

④

All notes to be played on the 4th string

Detailed description: This diagram shows a single bass clef staff representing the 4th string. It contains three notes: an open string note (0), a note at the 1st fret (G), and a note at the 2nd fret (A). A circled number '4' is positioned below the staff with an arrow pointing to it. A box labeled 'fingering' has an arrow pointing to the 2nd fret note. A text box at the bottom left says 'All notes to be played on the 4th string'.

D String Open 2nd

0

E 2nd fret

2

F 3rd fret

3

②

Detailed description: This diagram shows a single bass clef staff representing the 3rd string. It contains three notes: an open string note (0), a note at the 2nd fret (E), and a note at the 3rd fret (F). A circled number '2' is positioned below the staff.

A String Open 3rd

0

B 2nd fret

2

C 3rd fret

3

③

Detailed description: This diagram shows a single bass clef staff representing the 2nd string. It contains three notes: an open string note (0), a note at the 2nd fret (B), and a note at the 3rd fret (C). A circled number '3' is positioned below the staff.

E String Open 4th fret

0

F 1st fret

1

G 3rd fret

3

④

Detailed description: This diagram shows a single bass clef staff representing the 1st string. It contains three notes: an open string note (0), a note at the 1st fret (F), and a note at the 3rd fret (G). A circled number '4' is positioned below the staff.